Florence University of the Arts (FUA) is an academic institution for study abroad in Florence, Italy. FUA collaborates with The American University of Florence (AUF), an international university offering US-style undergraduate and graduate degrees, in a cooperation to offer study abroad programs with a diverse breadth and depth of academic curriculum.

FUA study abroad programs may include AUF offerings, which are US-aligned in terms of higher education standards as per the university's institutional structure. Common courses offered by FUA and AUF have been jointly selected by both institutions as eligible for mutual recognition and delivery. As such, equal academic standards, credibility, and outcomes are vetted by the Academic Offices of the institutions for all courses and syllabi offered in the study abroad program.

SCHOOL OF ITALIAN STUDIES AND LINGUISTICS
DEPARTMENT OF ITALIAN LANGUAGE
COURSE TITLE: ITALIAN LANGUAGE INTERMEDIATE I
COURSE CODE: ISITII201
3 semester credits

1. DESCRIPTION

This course builds on and extends fundamental skills developed in the beginner course. Emphasis is placed on developing fluency skills and integration of language and culture through more extensive reading and writing. After taking this course, students will be able to express polite requests using the Present Conditional, making future plans using the Future Tense and develop their language ability by using Direct and Indirect Object Pronouns. This course is aimed at students who already have a basic vocabulary of Italian and some knowledge of elementary language structures.

2. OBJECTIVES

During the course emphasis will be given to all four different abilities to be developed while learning a language: Listening – Speaking, Reading – Writing. Students will be encouraged to try to speak both in and outside class, to have them become more familiar with the Italian language and culture environment in which they are immersed. During this course, students will learn to recount past events, make future plans and ask polite requests.

Grammar

Studying and extending basic knowledge of the grammatical structures needed for correct expression, in statements referring to present, past (passato prossimo /imperfetto) situations.

Vocabulary

Understand the meaning of simple words from the context in which they are used. Expand vocabulary in order to participate in everyday simple and concrete communicative situations.

Listening

Understand the general meaning and the most important information in conversations.

Speaking

Ability to take part in everyday simple and concrete communicative situations.
explaining familiar facts or events.

Reading

Understand simple and short private correspondence (letters/postcards) and simple texts picking up familiar names, words and basic phrases.

Writing

Produce simple texts of a practical nature. Write simple descriptive passages.

3. REQUIREMENTS

This level is for students who already had one semester of Italian language or equivalent.

4. METHOD

This course consists of lectures, class discussions, projects, and interaction with the local community. Mediums for instruction used will include, but are not limited to, interactive and hands-on activities which challenge thought processes, integrate relevant academic sources, may include multimedia references, propose creative problem-solving, and other appropriate forms of delivery as deemed appropriate to the course's purpose.
